

The Light Shines in Darkness — John 1:1–5

“ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. ” —
John 1:5

Scripture: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through Him all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made. In Him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Jesus, the eternal Word, is the light that brings life to all creation. The same voice that spoke the universe into being now speaks into our hearts. No shadow of fear or failure can overpower the light of His presence. When you walk through dark seasons, remember: the Word who was in the beginning still speaks your name today. His light will not be extinguished by any darkness around you.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, my eternal Light, thank You for shining into the dark corners of my heart. When the world feels dim, help me to remember that Your Word still speaks life. Let Your truth illuminate my steps, and may Your light never fade from my soul. Amen.

Journal Reflections

Written by Ginny Peirce and Nova